Re: T.R. et al. v. New York City Dept. of Education, 23-CV-9950-DEH-JLC

Dear Judge Cott:

This office represents Defendant New York City Department of Education in the above-captioned action. The Parties have conferred and agree that no outstanding issues remain to be resolved in this matter other than attorneys' fees.

I write to respectfully request, on consent, an extension of approximately sixty (60) days, until April 2, 2024, for Defendant to respond to the Complaint. Defendant's response to the Complaint is currently due on February 2, 2024. In light of the fact that the only outstanding issue is that of Plaintiffs' entitlement to attorney's fees, the Parties wish to engage in further discussion to determine whether this matter can be resolved completely through a negotiated settlement without the need for further judicial intervention.

This is Defendant's second request for an extension of time to respond to the Complaint. Your Honor granted Defendant's previous request. No other existing deadlines in the case will be impacted by the requested extension.

Thank you for Your Honor's consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Jaimini A. Vyas
Assistant Corporation Counsel
